

13 arrested at underage drinking party in Rehoboth Beach

Division of Alcohol & Tobacco Enforcement Agents working in the Rehoboth Beach area responded with Delaware State Police to 70 Canal Landing Court in Rehoboth Beach for a report of a loud party with underage drinking. Upon arrival several groups of juveniles were seen walking away from the area, some of which were carrying alcoholic beverages. Contact was made with the host of the party, Brian Bowersock, 20, of Wilmington. Bowersock was the host of the party where apparently a number of underage subjects were in attendance, many of which were under 18 years of age, and alcohol was being consumed on the premises.

DATE agents arrested Bowersock and issued him a criminal summons for Providing Alcohol to a Minor and Underage Consumption of Alcohol. Agents also made 12 additional arrests for underage consumption of alcohol for subjects ranging from 15 to 19 years of age. The juveniles that were arrested were released to the custody of parents or guardians.
